This job is ideally a full-time position, 40 hours, Mon-Sat. Is there specific start and end dates for your availability? Are there days and hours you are not available?

How did you learn about Microcosm Publishing?

By your understanding, what kind of books does Microcosm publish? Which of our books are you most interested in or curious about?

What are your career goals? What steps have you taken to accomplish them?

What do you want to learn? What skills and talents do you want to develop?

What kind of relevant work experience do you have and where else have you been involved? Do you have prior experience working fast food or entry-level retail? How long?

Where and how have your critical thinking skills been learned or further developed?

What special skills do you have?

What is your philosophy towards work?

What book that was published in the past five years would you recommend? Why?

What are your favorite music and snack foods.

What else should we know about you and why you want to be involved with Microcosm?

Microcosm is a publisher and distributor of books on topics that some may find explicit or even offensive. We are sensitive to the beliefs of others, but in order to get work done we must talk openly about and engage with a variety of topics that may be considered "inappropriate" by some, such as drug use, sex/sexuality, human anatomy, the prison industrial complex, non-Christian religions, and more. Please let us know if there is any subject matter that you would rather not engage with or may be triggering for you:

I understand that all tangible work that I perform during my employment at Microcosm will remain the property of Microcosm. I understand that I may come into possession of privileged information and agree not to share any private information about Microcosm's data and internal workings.
